N.B. when the topics are taught depends on how many teachers deliver the course that particular year. Every year sixth form students will complete at least 4 core assessment tasks which will be suitably placed throughout the year, one of these being the summer or mock examination. Three of these CATS will take the form of A Level essays and a detailed reflection will be completed after each CAT. Currently Year 12 and 13 are taught by three subject teachers, each teaching a particular paper. L.McArthur teaches Philosophy of Religion, L.Cave teaches Religious Ethics and H.Waldron teaches Developments in Christian Thought. CATs will be completed for Year 12 in Term 1, Term 2, Term 4 and Term 5 (the summer examination). For Year 13, these will be completed in Term 1, Term 2 (the mock examinations), Term 3 and Term 4.
